Honored by Co-workers

Mrs. Fish Retires From Social Service Career

Mrs. A. L. (Lorna) Fish, 1719 Cabrillo Ave., Torrance, ended thirteen and a half years as a Los Angeles County Social Service Admissions Worker at Harbor General Hospital, Friday, Oct. 9 and she and her husband, a retired Torrance steel worker, are "going fishing."

Mrs. Fish was honored at a farewell party and showered with gifts by her 51 fellow department workers and hospital staff members. Her husband also attended the party and helped unwrap the gifts from their well-wishers.

The long-time Torrance resident taught school here prior to entering the Social Service Field, the more than 13 years of which she served at the Harbor General Hospital.

The couple will leave next Thursday for Florida where they have leased a mobile home awaiting them on the shore of Lake Conway near Orlando, Florida. The daughter, Elizabeth and her husband Air Force Major Van H. Barnard, well-known in Torrance, and their two children also live at Lake Conway.

After a four-month Florida stay, the local couple will embark on a round-the-world cruise. Mrs. Fish, a 1962 graduate of UCLA, is a member of the Carson Street Baptist Church here and the Torrance Business and Professional Women.

"We have also rented a small cruiser to travel on the lake and go fishing" Mrs. Fish said and excitedly added "we can hardly wait." Mrs. Eileen O'Brien, director of Social Service at the hospital, was among those bidding Mrs. Fish farewell and complimenting her on a "career well done."

Woman's Club to Hear Talk by Local Teacher

Lester Foster, principal of Columbia Elementary School, Torrance, will be guest speaker at the Torrance Woman's Club potluck luncheon meeting on Wednesday, Oct. 21, at the clubhouse. His topic will be on mental retardation, according to Mrs. Hugh Cahill, program chairman.

In 1958, in the bungalows of Meadowpark School, an idea was born. The Columbia School for the trainable mentally retarded was being built. It has since that date been in operation with Mr. Foster, principal, and 13 teachers who are trained in special education. Foster is developing at this time a sheltered workshop training program which is the logical extension of the school at age 18. A potluck luncheon will precede the program at 12:30 p.m., with Mmes. C. A. Perkins, F. C. Owens, and R. S. Russell in charge. A business meeting will follow with Mrs. Andrew Acampora, president, presiding.

PANCAKES AND FUN . . . This morning at El Retiro Park, Las Vecinas Woman's club is staging its annual Pancake Breakfast and Fair. The aroma of pancakes and bacon filled the air as area families travel to the park. A fish pond and other diversions are

Concert Assn. Opens '64-65 Season Today

California Chamber Symphony which, with its virtuoso violinist-conductor Henri Temianka is one of the West Coast's most extraordinary and exciting musical groups, will perform this afternoon in the San Pedro High School auditorium at 3 p.m.

The concert marks the opening of the 1964-65 concert series offered by the San Pedro Community Concert Assn. and the tenth year since its inception, according to Morris W. Bulwa, association president.

Appearing with the California Chamber Symphony will be the Israeli soprano, Netania Davrath. She has gained fame as a concert artist and as an opera star. Long one of the shining lights of the Israel Opera, she recently reaped high praise with her U. S. opera debut as Pamina in the Boston Opera Group's "The Magic Flute." One of the highlights of the program will be selections from Miss Davrath's best-selling Vanguard album, "Songs of the Auvergne."

Gynecologist To Speak To Medical Assistants

E. M. Broen, M.D., will be the guest speaker at the dinner meeting of the Harbor Medical Assistants Assn. on Tuesday evening, Oct. 20, at the Club Alondra, 16411 Prairie Ave., Lawndale. Dr. Broen's topic will be "The Odd, the Unusual and the Interesting in Gynecology."

The local doctor was certified by the Board of Obstetrics and Gynecology in 1947. He is a Fellow of the American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists, Fellow of the Los Angeles Obstetrical and Gynecological Society and a clinical professor of Obstetrics and Gynecology at UCLA. He is also a member of the Los Angeles County, California and American Medical Associations.

Two classes from the Gardena Adult School will attend in a body, Audrey Davis' class in "Practical Nursing" and Jean Davis' class in "Medical Office Procedures." This is being planned as a field trip with the school's approval. Door prizes will be awarded during the evening. Reservations must be made today with Leona Root, corresponding secretary at Dr. Felix Starr's office, or one of the co-hostesses, Lillian Brown, Dee Di Carlo, or Jean Davis.
